

Animal classification (mammals)

Circle the mammals.

Animal classification (reptiles)

Connect the word with the correct definition.

Fill in the blanks.

mammal

birds

fish

amphibians

reptiles

1

_____ live the first part of their lives in the water and the last part on the land.

2

A _____ is an animal that breathes air, has a backbone, produces milk and grows hair at some point during its life.

3

A _____ is an animal which lives and breathes in water. It has gills, fins, and scales.

4

Snakes, lizards and alligators have skin covered with scales and are classified as _____.

5

_____ have wings, along with a beak and no teeth. Most of the times, their bodies are covered with feathers.